DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

The following title is suggested: container and lid having locking flaps.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

It is unclear how an outwardly turned circumferential edge is complementary to an upwardly then downwardly turned circumferential edge.

The structure of the annular rib including the second cross-section is not clearly set forth in claim 5. It appears from the claim the second cross-section is a part of the rib. Although the claims are interpreted in light of the specification, limitations from the specification are not read into the claims. See In re Van Geuns, 988 F.2d 1181, 26 USPQ2d 1057 (Fed. Cir. 1993). Therefore, the rib and the second cross sections should be set forth in the claim with respect to one another (radially outward or inward) for clarity.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
4. Claims 1 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Haggbom (US 3,589,551). Haggbom teaches a plastic cover having elastic flaps 5 or 8 (see abstract) for locking the cover to a container.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. Claims 1-4 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Haggbom. Wherein the disclosure of Haggbom does not explicitly set forth the at least two flaps are on different sides of the lid, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to space the at least two flaps so they are on opposite sides of the lid for a better and more secure engagement with the container.

Regarding the inclined walls of the container (claim 2), it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize a container having an inclined wall since such containers are known in the art. Doing so allows for stacking multiple containers atop one another.

6. Claims 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Haggbom in view of Wong (US 6,640,716).

Haggbom teaches the claimed lid except for the annular rib and the annular groove.

Wong teaches it is known to provide a lid with an edge portion for engagement with the container edge, an annular rib, and an annular groove.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide a lid edge with an annular rib including the engaging cross section of the lid and an annular groove. Doing so provides a stable stacking feature for the lid when not in use.

7. Claims 9-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Haggbom in view of Reifers (US 3,388,852).

Haggbom teaches the claimed container except for texture of the body wall and the body and lid being molded of paper pulp.

Reifers teaches it is known to form a container and lid of "molded pulp, foam plastic, paper impregnated with plastic, etc."

Art Unit: 3727

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to form the lid and container of Haggbom from paper pulp. Doing so provides an alternative material composition known in the art.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-10 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

9. In view of the new grounds of rejection, this Office action is made non-final.

10. In order to reduce pendency and avoid potential delays, Group 3720 is encouraging FAXing of responses to Office Actions directly into the Group at (571) 273-8300. This practice may be used for filing papers not requiring a fee. It may also be used for filing papers which require a fee by applicants who authorize charges to a PTO deposit account. Please identify the examiner and art unit at the top of your cover sheet. Papers submitted via FAX into Group 3720 will be promptly forwarded to the examiner.

11. It is called to applicant's attention that if a communication is faxed before the reply time has expired, applicant may submit the reply with a "Certificate of Facsimile" which merely asserts that the reply is being faxed on a given date. So faxed, before the period for reply has expired, the reply may be considered timely. A suggested format for a certificate follows:

I hereby certify that this correspondence for Application Serial No. _____ is being facsimiled to The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office via fax number 571-273-8300 on the date shown below:

Typed or printed name of person signing this certificate
